NOW ON SALE!!

Dear Reader,

First, Happy Blessed Easter!! I hope you are enjoying 2009 so far. Hope the weather where you are is as pretty as it is here in Michigan. It's almost like we're being rewarded for putting up with that long, cold winter. I'll take it!

Even as a child I loved Easter second only to Christmas because it was the first real sign of spring. Remember going to church Easter morning, and seeing all the women decked out in their pastel finery, even the men gave up their typical dark suits in favor of lightweight looked like a rainbow in motion. sport the "big hats" like mama. ☺

linens in earth tones. The children I couldn't wait to grow up so I could traditions have faded away. one was the first time a woman came pants suit? All that whispering behind

So many of those unspoken Remember how scandalized every into the house of God wearing a fans "Has Sister (fill in the blank) lost her ever lovin mind?!" Today, I only look back and thank the sister for her courage! On cold Sunday mornings that's one tradition

I'm glad has been broken.

Well, Sugar Rush is now on sale in stores and online – you can also get it in ebook form from eharlequin. RT gave it 4 stars!!! Thank you to everyone who has sent me emails so far. I love hearing what my readers think.

It's still a work in progress, but I now have a title for the April 2010 book. Drum roll please . . . Miami Attraction. How you like that! ☺ I'm about 3/4th through with the original draft, and surprisingly, my characters are behaving themselves rather well. Although, there was a scene where my alpha hero tried to morph into an uber-alpha – but I backed him up real fast!

Just a reminder to check the website next week, I'll have the Sugar Rush contest posted. If you have a sweet tooth, you'll love the prizes I'm giving away!

This month I'm doing a book signing in the Borders Express In Westland, MI and then in May I'll be in Cleveland, OH at the Tower City Borders Express. Details for both are now posted on the website. After these couple of signings, I plan to go back into hibernation. After Miami Attraction is finished, I have two more projects scheduled for 2010 that I need to get finished this year, and let's face it - I am NOT the fastest writer in the world. ☺ That's it for now, enjoy the warm weather, until next time . . .
